

Dance

Written by George Walley

Arranged by Koondarm

Won't you dance with me darling, in the dawn of day
Celebrating sweet sounds of the morning glow
Hold me close, oh my sweetheart, never let me go
As the velvet sky turns to blue

Won't you dance with me darling, when the sun shines high
As we feel the true warmth of our love inside
Though the dust rises surely and drifts away
It's another blessed day with you

Won't you dance with me darling, Look into my eyes
Feel my heart beat and breathing getting strong inside
And words are not needed to say what is true
It's another blessed day with you

(Humming)

Won't you dance with me darling, Look into my eyes
Feel my heart beat and breathing getting strong inside
And words are not needed to say what is true
It's another blessed day with you

Won't you dance with me darling, in the dawn of day
Celebrating sweet sounds of the morning glow
Hold me close, oh my sweetheart, never let me go
As the velvet sky turns to blue
